After the coronation the May pole was danced by the queen and her attendants, and afterwards by the little girls in their pretty flower costumes. After the exercises refreshments, strawberries and cream, ice cream and cake were served, and a large sum realized, which will be donated towards the erection of an Episcopal church at Lewiston, in Spotsylvania county.

This has been the gayest week socially for a long period. The excursion season opened up this week in earnest, and two were given by moonlight on the Rappahannock during the week on the steamer Tourist. The first was under the auspices of the Athletic Association of Fredericksburg College, and the large number who went, were composed principally of the college people and their friends. It was a most enjoyable trip. The crowd was congenial, the college orchestra furnished music, refreshments were served, tete-a-tetes held, and a good social time generally was spent. The steamer left about 7 o'clock, went down as far as Rappahannock, and returned here about 11 o'clock. On Thursday night another excursion was given, this one by the People's Steamboat Company. The crowd was even larger than the first one, and each one of the excursionists spent a pleasant evening.

The Literary Club held its meeting at the attractive home of Mrs. V. M. Fleming, on Hanover Street, on Thursday afternoon and an interesting programme furnished pleasant entertainment for the members who were present.

Friday night the pupils of the music department of Fredericksburg College gave a recital, which was largely attended and greatly enjoyed, the programme being an especially attractive one.

Miss Margaret Wallace, of Caroline county, is touring in Europe with her adopted sister.

Mrs. Dr. Sidney Twynch, of Newark, N. J., has been the guest this week of her aunt, Mrs. Anna P. Green. Mrs. Green has been critically ill, but is now somewhat improved.

Miss Lizzie Reynolds and Mrs. Emma Martin have returned from a visit to Irvington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wallace have returned from a visit to relatives in King George county.

Mr. W. D. Scott, Jr., has returned to Baltimore after a visit to his parents here.

Mrs. R. E. Holloway, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Leavelle, has returned to her home in Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Billingsley are visiting relatives in Culpeper county.

Mrs. Andrew R. Potts is visiting her daughter in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Melville, of Hagerstown, Md., were the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Melville here.

MAIDS OF HONOR

The Young Ladies' Afternoon Club Entertained.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHATHAM, VA., May 16.—Misses Susie K. Moon and Lucy Fontaine Dabney have been appointed maids of honor, to Miss Lucy Hill, sponsor to the Confederate reunion at New Orleans. The young ladies left for New Orleans on Saturday, the 15th. The appointments were made by Colonel J. M. Neal, inspector-general of this district. The young ladies are both beautiful and accomplished.

The Young Ladies' Afternoon Club was entertained by Miss Lucy Ballard Wednesday afternoon. The life and character of William Calhoun Semmes was the subject for discussion at the meeting, which was very instructive and enjoyable. Delightful refreshments were served.

A party of young people enjoyed a delightful evening at the home of Mrs. Walcott, when the booby fell to the principal amusement, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The occasion was in honor of Mr. W. D. Payne, now visiting his mother.

Mrs. N. B. Clement attended the finals of the Richmond University College of Medicine in Richmond this week.

Mr. Abram N. Parrish, an old and well known citizen of Pittsylvania, died in his eighty-eighth year. The greater portion of his life was spent in the locality in which he resided.

Rev. Aylor, of this place, has been assisting in a series of meetings at the Secedon Church, in Danville, this week. The meeting, which has been in progress at the Methodist church here for several weeks, closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pillow, of this place, were the happy parents of twins on Wednesday morning.

The May term of Pittsylvania County Court will convene Monday at the Secedon applications will be made by the distillers and retail dealers for license to sell whiskey in the county. From reports very few barroom men will apply, as they have been unable to secure the requisite number of names upon their petitions.

Miss Emma Tate, of Chalk Level, is visiting Mrs. Aylor.

Mr. L. A. Aylor, a prominent merchant of this place, who is now recuperating at the Virginia Hot Springs, is rapidly improving.

Work on the new brick hotel is progressing rapidly.

Pupils' Recital at Hollins.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HOLLINS, VA., May 16.—In the pupils' recital this week, given by members of the music classes of Miss Frost and Mr. Michaels, the following young ladies took part:

FINE WEATHER AT OLD POINT

The Guests at the Hotels Spent Most of the Time Out of Doors—Golf and Tennis

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

OLD POINT COMFORT, VA., May 15.—Gorgeous weather prevailed at Old Point last week, and the guests at the hotels spent most of their time out of doors. Sailing, golfing, walking and tennis were very popular.

Mrs. J. W. MacMurray, of Rye, N. Y., gave a sailing party on Tuesday evening for her daughters, Misses Ethel and Edna MacMurray.

Mrs. Charles Augustus Brown and Mrs. Francis W. Brown entertained the Fort Monroe Card Club on Monday evening.

Lieutenant Edward Hill, U. S. A., gave a tea at his quarters on Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Earl P. Jessop, wife of Lieutenant Jessop, of the U. S. S. Olympia.

Miss Mary Lou Cooke, of Norfolk, was the guest of Miss Lucy Brown over Sunday. Miss Cooke is a frequent visitor at Old Point, and is one of the popular young women at the hotel.

The Pilgrims spent Tuesday at the Chamberlin and visited nearby points of interest. They went to Jamestown on Wednesday to attend the celebration of the Society for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities.

Two golf parties were given last week by Mrs. Francis W. Brown, one on Saturday and another on Wednesday. Her guests for the latter were Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, Miss Alice Hotchkiss and Miss Bovie Scott, of Richmond; Miss Ethel Schmeck, of Hampton; Mrs. Earl P. Jessop, Mrs. Carter, of Fort Monroe; Miss Worthington, of Washington; and Miss Benham, of North Carolina.

You Know That Hot Weather Is Coming, Don't You?

Well, we want to suggest your buying your porch and lawn rockers, chairs and settees right now while our assortment is large, fresh and complete, for we believe, or rather we KNOW, that our prices taken all the way through are far lower than ever before. We've gotten extremely low prices from the manufacturer, and we've put a mighty small margin of profit on the manufacturer's cost.

Our line of rustic, wild cherry, odd pieces is especially complete. We've even got lawn tea tables, tabourettes, etc., all made especially to stand summer and winter rains. Think of a nicely finished arm chair, arm rocker and settee all three for $5.00.

By the way, one great reason of the immense popularity of our rustic chairs, etc., is that when they set out in the sun all day there is no varnish on them that gums by the heat and sticks to your clothes at night.
